

NORTH VANCOUVER PUBLIC ART ADVISORY COMMITTEE

APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT

(TWO YEAR TERM) October 2009 – December 2011

or

(ONE YEAR TERM) October 2009 – December 2010

The North Vancouver Public Art Advisory Committee (NVPAAC) is an expert voluntary body of nine members chosen for their background, knowledge and expertise in the area of public art, architecture, art, urban design, art history or residential development. This bi-municipal committee serving both the City and the District of North Vancouver reviews and advises on public art matters pertaining to the municipally administered civic, community and developer public art programs. Committee members are appointed for a two-year term and are required to attend one monthly meeting. In addition, members may occasionally be asked to serve on a time-limited, project specific, public art selection panel.
